

Database

J. Simon-Gillo

has plans, that we should use the database contents for on-line malfunction evaluation.

Imagine, we have a clickable map of the MVD subsystem:

If a software alarm is going off, we would be able to tell:

1. which channels are affected,
2. what are the specific read-out components,
3. what is the components Q&A history.